The Elton John AIDS Foundation Covid-19 Emergency Fund (International)

Who's it for & who can apply? Community based organisations.

More information here

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Elton John AIDS Foundation has announced the launch of a new Covid-19 Emergency Fund. The fund which operates is seeking to support community-based organisations to implement lifesaving interventions to help mitigate adverse effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on HIV response efforts for key population communities around the world. Such solutions should aim to demonstrably mitigate the threat of COVID-19 on maintaining current levels of access or increasing access to HIV-related prevention, testing, care and treatment adherence services.

To submit an application to the COVID-19 Emergency Fund, please complete this application form and budget template, and email both along with the organisation's most recent audited accounts to covid19@ejaf.org by April 23, 2020 at 5:59 PM GMT, with the subject line "COVID-19 RESPONSE FUND – YOUR ORGANIZATION'S NAME".

Emergency Surplus Food Grant (England)

Who's it for & who can apply? Organisations.

More information here.

The UK Government in collaboration with the Waste and Resources Action Programme (WRAP) have launched a £3.25 million fund to support the operations of not-for-profit food redistributors to ensure that any surplus food can reach people in need or those considered most vulnerable.

The COVID-19 Emergency Surplus Food Grant will be delivered in three phases. During Phase 1 WRAP will contact redistribution organisations who have applied previously to the fund to ascertain their immediate need for potential funding support. Phase 2 is currently open and will provide funding opportunities for small surplus food redistributors, and WRAP are also launching funding support aimed at medium to larger operators (phase 3).

The grants can be used to fund both capital and revenue costs associated with redistribution activities such as:

- access to surplus food through logistical collections;
- sorting, storing, freezing, labelling / repackaging food, and;
- onward distribution of food to charities or end beneficiaries.

For any question or to register your interest please contact a member of the WRAP grants team by email.

Kellogg's Breakfast Club Grants Programme

To qualify for the programme the breakfast club must be based in a school in England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland and priority will be given to schools that have 35% and above of children eligible for pupil premium funding and / or eligible for free school meals or that are based in an area which is classified as falling in the 10% of most deprived areas according to the Index of Multiple Deprivation. Only one grant per school in each academic year will be available. During the Covid 19 schools shutdown, the Kellogg's Breakfast Club Programme will prioritise schools who remain open to vulnerable children and the families of key workers.

Leathersellers Company

Who's it for & who can apply? Charities.

More information and Apply here

In the light of the unprecedented challenges that now face small charities providing vital services to the most vulnerable members of our community, our small grants programme will prioritise applications from UK registered charities which are currently supporting:

- the homeless or those at risk of becoming homeless
- provision of food and essential supplies
- victims of domestic violence
- nursing care to vulnerable patients (in-person essential nursing that has to take place even in the midst of this crisis)

The value of the grant awarded could be up to a maximum of £3,000.

Musicians Affected by the Coronavirus (UK)

Who's it for & who can apply? Groups and individual musicians.

More information and apply here.

Grants of £3,000 are available to help professional musicians aged 18 and over with no significant backing, who are finding their health, and performance and teaching commitments affected by the Coronavirus. The Covid-19 round of Help Musicians' Do It Differently Fund aims to do the following three things:

- Offers a package of support for professional, creative and wellbeing development
- Enable creative independence for music creators who wish to explore working innovatively through digital methods
- Encourage new habits and good practices of sustainable wellbeing

Groups of 6 members or less can also apply. There will be multiple rounds of the Fund over the next three months but applications can only be made once.

The National Lottery Community Fund – COVID-19 Response (England)

Who's it for & who can apply? All types of organisations, including Local Authorities.

More information here or Apply here

The National Lottery Community Fund has announced that its Awards for All England funding programme will remain open to all applications but, for the next six months, will prioritise applications from voluntary and community groups that need help to respond to Covid-19. Grants of between £300 to £10,000 will be available to existing grant-holders and is available to help with costs such as running costs, equipment, one-off events, staff and training costs, and transport etc. Applications which involve the community in the design, development and delivery of the projects will be more likely to succeed. Groups may hold up to a maximum of two awards within a 12-month period. Applications will be dealt with more quickly than normal and can be made at any time.

Neighbourly

Who's it for & who can apply? This is an exchange platform where organisations can donate as well as apply for funding. You can register here.

The giving platform Neighbourly which connects businesses to good causes is launching a series of micro-grants of up to £400, to support good causes that are helping communities affected by the new Coronavirus outbreak. Grants will be awarded to existing members of Neighbourly in UK and Ireland whose work will involve supporting members of the community suffering economically, socially or from ill health as a result of the outbreak. This may include, but not be limited to, elderly people, those on low incomes and people at risk of food insecurity. Grants are unrestricted and can go towards food provision, emergency supplies, practical support, running costs, transport and other essentials.

Prince's Trust and NatWest Enterprise Relief Fund (UK)

Who's it for & who can apply? Individuals aged 18-30.

More information and Apply here

The Prince's Trust and NatWest have launched a £5million grant fund for young entrepreneurs affected by coronavirus. The Fund is available to entrepreneurs aged 18-30, who can apply for grants and tailored support from today.

Grants can be used to maintain core business operations during the crisis, as well as meet any existing financial commitments, such as paying for essential equipment or settling invoices from suppliers. In conjunction with these grants, the initiative will also offer one-to-one support and guidance to applicants who need it.

To be eligible, businesses must have started up in the last four years and be run by someone aged 18 to 30. Young people who are in the process of starting a business and don't have any other source of income during the crisis are also eligible to apply for a grant. Applications can be made at any time.

The Sylvia Adams Charitable Trust – Grants for Early Years Charities Affected by the Coronavirus

Who's it for & who can apply? Organisations whose work is with targeted groups of 0-3 year olds.

More information here or Apply here

Small and medium-sized registered charities working with disadvantaged children aged 0-3 years in England and Wales can apply for small, unrestricted grants to help them during the coronavirus pandemic.

The Sylvia Adams Charitable Trust has changed the application guidelines and processes for the spring application round of its Early Years' Preventative Work Fund to make one-off payments of £5,000 available to charities with an income of less than £750,000 which may need extra assistance.

Charities applying must show a likelihood of increased demand for their services and/or a loss of anticipated income. The closing date for applications in this round is the 28th April 2020.

Tesco Bags of Help COVID-19 Communities Fund

Who's it for & who can apply? All types of organisations, including Local Authorities.

More information and Apply here

Tesco Bags of Help has launched a new Fund in response to the Coronavirus outbreak. The new short-term fund is open to registered charities, voluntary and community organisations, schools, health bodies, Parish, Town and community councils, social enterprises, local authorities and social housing organisations across the UK. Grants of £500 are available to organisations that support vulnerable groups whose demand for services has been increased or disrupted, or who need to put new services in place.

The fund will prioritise the following organisations:

- Whose need for services has been disrupted – for example a food bank whose stocks are running low and need an immediate donation to enable the food bank to restock.
- Require to put in place new services – for example charities setting up a new home service for the elderly who usually attend a monthly lunch club or a charity needing to set up a telephone service to support beneficiaries.
- Have increased demand – a holiday hunger club needs more resources due to schools closing, or a children's centre needs an additional temporary staff member.

The Fund is set up to support organisation need rather than fund specific projects and expects to make weekly awards.

Applications can be made at any time.

Somerset Coronavirus Response & Recovery Fund

Who's it for & who can apply? Local Charities and Community Organisations

More information here or Apply here

The coronavirus outbreak is affecting everyone in Somerset. People are struggling, but they are also finding ways to support others.

Our local charities and community organisations have a crucial role to play in responding to the crisis.

This Fund will support their response during the coming months.

It brings together donations from our own Somerset Coronavirus Appeal and those from the National Emergencies Trust Coronavirus Appeal.

What do we want to fund?

We are currently supporting work that directly responds to the needs that have arisen because of the coronavirus outbreak. This includes:

- supporting the ongoing needs of vulnerable people to ensure their health and wellbeing is maintained
- supporting activities that relieve pressure on local statutory services, particularly emergency or health and social care provision, or complement their response
- activities that support vulnerable people who are self-isolating (the elderly, people with pre-existing medical conditions, etc.)
- foodbanks and organisations working to combat hardship, including child hunger
- coordinating community responses
- volunteer costs for new and existing organisations responding to the effect of the crisis (note that compensation for a loss of income due to volunteering cannot be considered)
- additional costs of working remotely and adapting services delivered in the wider community
- additional support as required for emotional support, mental health and bereavement support
